FAIR TONIGHT AND FRIDAY. Light to Fresh Northwesterly Winds

Indicated. Forecast till 8 p.m. Friday: For the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia, fair tonight and Friday; light to fresh northwesterly winds.

Weather conditions and general forecast: The weather has cleared rapidly in the lake region, the Ohio valley and the middle Atlantic states. Rain has fallen in New York and New England, also in eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, eastern North Carolina, Wisconsin, Iowa, and quite generally in the northwest. Heavy rain fell during Wednesday in the valley of Virginia and western Maryland, but not elsewhere east of the Appalachians.

Warnings of flood stages in the rivers of North Carolina were issued at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday. Warnings of a fourteen-foot stage in the James at Richmond were issued Wednesday morning. Generally fair weather is indicated for tonight and Friday in all districts, except Maine, where rain will probably continue tonight.

The winds on the Atlantic coast will be mostly fresh westerly. On the lower lakes light variable winds will prevail. Steamers which depart today for European ports will have fresh northwesterly winds and partly cloudy weather to the Grand Banks.
The following heavy precipitation (in inches) has been reported during the past twenty-four hours: North Platte, 1,00; Lynchburg, 1.40; Harper's Ferry, W. Va., 4.00; Woodstock, Va., 2.05. Records for Twenty-Four Hours, CAMERA CLUB EXHIBIT. High School Photographers to Display Their Work.

In connection with the Eastern High School Industrial Exhibit the School Camera Club will tomorrow, from 1 to 5 o'clock, and from 7.30 to 9 p.m., give its annual photographic exhibit. Last year the exhibit was very meritorious, and it is expected that the one this year will be quite up to last year's standard. There will be no prizes offered, but ribbons will be awarded for artistic and technical photographs, adjudged worthy by Prof. Smille, Dr. Lane and Mr. Jenkins. The last two have consented to loan for exhibit several of their pictures, which will undoubtedly be of great merit, as the photographers are known as experts in photography. Prof. F. Lampson-Scribner of the Department of Agriculture has also loaned to the club a number of interesting views taken As the Camera Club was not organized until quite late this year, and since then has labored under difficulties, the membership is quite small, and amateurs of the school who are not in the club have been invited to contribute. One room will be devoted to the club's exhibit, and if pictures continue to arrive in as great num-bers as they have hitherto it is believed the room will be pretty well filled.

The officers of the club are as follows:
President, Mr. A. P. Arnold; vice president,
Miss Pearle Pettigrew; secretary, Mr. G.
W. Vinal; treasurer, Mr. H. V. Houn; librarian, Mr. D. A. Craig. Punishment of a Trooper. Private Artemus Hugundubler, Troop E, tial at Fort Myer, Va., of violating the 47th article of war, and sentenced to be dishonorably discharged, forfeiting all pay and allowances and confinement at hard labor for three months. In approving the action of the court General Brooke, commanding the department of the east, mitigated the forfeiture of pay to $10 a month for three months, and as thus mitigated the sentence was approved.
